Glenn Miller was one of the most successful bandleaders in the Swing era of the 1930s and '40s. At the height of his fame, Glenn volunteered for the Army and then organized and led the famous Glenn Miller Army Air Force Band to entertain servicemen. On December 15, 1944, Glenn's single-engine plane disappeared. His music, however, lives on!

The present Glenn Miller Orchestra, directed by Larry O'Brien, continues to play many of the original Miller arrangements, thrilling Glenn Miller's original fans who have not heard them played for a while, as well as a whole new generation of fans.
